What is special about Old Mill Middle North?

How do you harness the energy and enthusiasm of eleven to fourteen year olds?

Give them academic challenges and inquiry-based education. Emphasize global citizenship in a caring learning environment. These are the essential ingredients of Old Mill Middle School North, a place where students have the opportunity to develop the skills and confidence needed to say, "I will do my best."

The International Baccalaureate Middle Years Programme (MYP) teaches our students to think critically and ask fundamental questions. The learning environment challenges them to strive for their personal best and develop a zest for learning. At OMMN, it is "cool" to excel in school. Co-curricular activities provide a range of opportunities for students to try new experiences and gain the confidence that comes from taking risks and finding success in a variety of environments. This relies upon the understanding that every member of Old Mill Middle North is expected to contribute to a genuine sense of community. We achieve this by expecting that each and every student and staff member appreciates and embodies virtues such as respect, compassion, courtesy, integrity, kindness and perseverance.

Old Mill Middle School North stands for involvement, values and a sense of community -- the foundation for each student to successfully find his or her place in the world.

OMMN provides opportunities for students to experience success in a wide range of activities, both individually and in a team environment.
